Dear William Douglas,

I am writing to extend my sincere congratulations on your remarkable achievement as a finalist for the Christlit Book of the Year with your powerful memoir, "Hope Is All I Have."

Being selected as a finalist is a significant honor, especially considering the small number of winners chosen from each category each year. This recognition speaks volumes about the impact your work has had and will have on those who read it. It serves as an inspiring testimony, showcasing your courage and unwavering faith in the face of adversity. It is a gift to all, especially those affected by cancer, offering hope and encouragement during challenging times.

I highly recommend "Hope Is All I Have" to anyone seeking inspiration and strength, and am grateful for how you have shared your story with the world. Congratulations once more, and all the best for the future.

Sincerely,
